

B.P. at LITTLE ADEN

Some of the recreational facilities

A football match in progress at Little Aden. The game is controlled by the Bureika Football League, which has two divisions and twelve teams to each. Two pitches are provided, both flood-lit. Football is a most popular sport among the Arabs.

During off-duty hours, the employees of the refinery who enjoy sailing are often to be seen sailing their yachts in calm waters.

The picture depicts the children's swimming pool at Little Aden, with a relay race in progress. There are other bathing beaches for adults, with shark nets surrounding them.
